Principal's Report

- 1) Exterior painting is almost complete.
- 2) During construction of the single point of entry, the main office will be moved to Room 514. Security cameras will be installed. Fencing options for the portables are under consideration.
- 3) The Gator Express is confirmed for May 14 from 10:30am – 1:30pm. Ice Cream truck is also confirmed. Police officers will have a presence on the bus.
- 4) Glendale Elementary has the highest participation of Parent Surveys in the county, our goal was 20% and we exceeded that number.
- 5) Glendale Elementary is participating in the Moonshot Million Moment, students, teachers and parents are encouraged to join the Glendale Gators Crew.
- 6) Talent Show is scheduled for May 19th. There will be a dedication for Ms. Cooper.

Chairman's Report

1. The current budget is $8,935.72

Old Business

- 1) Relay for Life Marker for Ms. Cooper – A motion was approved to donate from the SAC funds for a marker for Ms. Cooper. Mr. Faust is reviewing the bylaws to confirm that it is OK for SAC to donate.
- 2) Gator Express – Mrs. White provided pricing for a plastic/vinyl banner for the side of the school bus. A motion was approved to purchase two banners up to $110.00. Mrs. White also prepared a brochure for local distribution advertising the Gator Express. Mr. Faust will have 1,000 copies prepared.

New Business

1. Ms. Poysell requested funds for the annual kindergarten end of the year celebration to be held on May 27, 2016. She asked for $250. A motion was approved to release the funds to her for the celebration.
2. We are working on a new tag line for our school t-shirts. Mr. Faust and his team are submitting ideas. This item was tabled to mid-summer.
3. In an effort to encourage outreach to our local community, it was proposed that we introduce a plan for students to obtain volunteer hours with a reward for the highest earning class.
4. Approval was given by Mr. Faust to the PTA to allow the End of Year/FCAT/FSA/SAT10 Completion celebration to include the use of water.

Agenda for Next Meeting

Tag line for school shirts, student volunteer hours, community involvement in our school
